

SPEAKING YOUR LANGUAGE

It helps when you can speak with your doctor in your language. You need to understand the information given to you about your health. You will know what questions to ask. This helps you understand what you need to do to take care of yourself. Your doctor will know what is important to you.

Better Health wants to be sure you get the most out of your care. We help members communicate in over 100 languages. We also handle calls from people who have trouble hearing. This is all free to you.
